Challenge Problems

Continuity

Problem 1. Construct/describe a function that is discontinuous on an infinite number of points. A graph is sufficient.

Differentiability

Problem 2. Construct/describe a function that is not differentiable on an infinite number of points but is continuous everywhere. A graph is sufficient.